

An enemy army is spotted by the lookout and they are heading your way...

Cornerstones: Traders and Raiders

Copyright © 2016 Cornerstones Education Limited

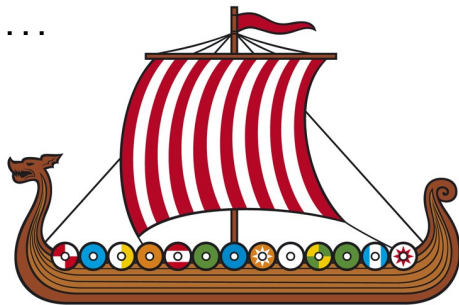

As you are tending the crops, you come across something unexpected in the earth. You wipe away the mud and realise it is a sword – and not just any old sword...

Cornerstones: Traders and Raiders

Copyright © 2016 Cornerstones Education Limited

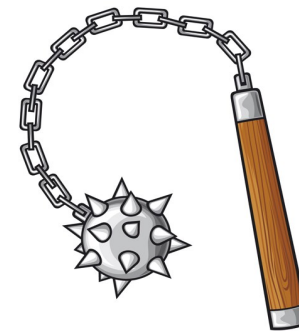

The battle has been fiercely fought but now it is over. Today your people have not been victorious. It is time to pay the price...

Cornerstones: Traders and Raiders

Copyright © 2016 Cornerstones Education Limited

News reaches your village that your Lord is dead. What will the reaction in the village be? What does this mean for you and your family?

Cornerstones: Traders and Raiders Copyright © 2016 Cornerstones Education Limited

Fire! Fire! The sun is at its highest and the ground is baked hard. A small fire could cause the destruction of your entire village...

Cornerstones: Traders and Raiders

Copyright © 2016 Cornerstones Education Limited

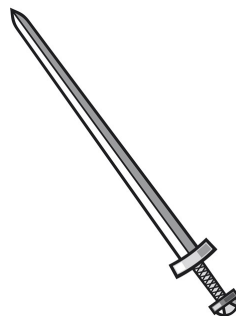

The Lord has left his weapons by the side of a field. The harvest has failed and your family are hungry. The decorated weapons could be bartered for food, but the penalty if you get caught would be harsh...

Cornerstones: Traders and Raiders

Copyright © 2016 Cornerstones Education Limited

Tonight you will eat well and be entertained with songs and stories at the great feast. But will the arrival of a stranger spoil the night?

Cornerstones: Traders and Raiders

Copyright © 2016 Cornerstones Education Limited

The village animals are falling ill and the families have no milk, eggs or meat. When you return to your one-room home, a statue of a god has been left. Who has put it there and can it help?

Cornerstones: Traders and Raiders

Copyright © 2016 Cornerstones Education Limited

Strangers wearing robes and silver crosses are seen coming towards your village. You have heard of a new religion – Christianity. What do these men want and how will they be received?

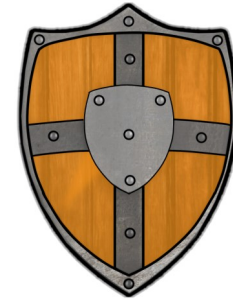

Cornerstones: Traders and Raiders

Copyright © 2016 Cornerstones Education Limited

The leader of your fiercest enemy is due to visit your Lord. He wants payment for protection but your village can not afford it.

There will be a feast. Should you add some poisonous herbs to his meal and spare your people?

Cornerstones: Traders and Raiders

Copyright © 2016 Cornerstones Education Limited